

APPENDICES

Sources

1. Ilona Tomova, Gypsies in the Transition Period. International Center for Minority Research, Sofia, 1995
2. Ilona Tomova, The Access of Roma to Healthcare. International Conference on the Access of Roma to Healthcare organized by the Albert Schweitzer Institute, Sofia, November 4–6, 2000
3. Zlatka Yankova, The Tuberculosis Epidemic
4. Mima Dimitrova, TB Epidemiological Indicators for the Region of Sliven for 1997–2000. Draft Program for Fighting Tuberculosis among Roma
5. Strategic Plan of the Nevo Drom Association – Kyustendil
6. Radosveta Stamenkova, The Reproductive Health of Roma in Bulgaria
7. Ivaylo Turnev, The Access of Chronically Ill and Disabled Roma to Healthcare Services. International Conference on the Access of Roma to Healthcare organized by the Albert Schweitzer Institute, Sofia, November 4–6, 2000
8. Ivaylo Turnev, National Epidemiological Research of Hereditary Diseases among Roma in Bulgaria. International Conference on the Health Status of Roma organized by the Albert Schweitzer Institute, Sinaya, Romania, April 26–28, 2001
9. Stefan Panayotov and Zheliazko Manolov, The Access of Roma to Healthcare Services: Financial, Territorial and Cultural Barriers. The Model of the Nadezhda District in Sliven: Morbidity Specifics, Challenges to the Provision of Healthcare Services, Possible Solutions.
10. Ina Zoon, On the Margins. Roma and Public Services in Romania, Bulgaria, and Macedonia. Open Society Institute, 2001