

4. Profile 1:
success for Roma in local administration, party and NGO leaders	101
4.1. Conditions of success.....	103
4.1.1. The parents, the family: support for children and mastering the Bulgarian language.....	103
4.1.2. Desegregated education, asymmetry of success, compensatory mechanisms.....	112
4.1.3. Personal motivation: ambition, determination, devotion.....	120
4.1.4. Appropriate work, colleagues, going abroad.....	129
4.1.5. Party appointments, political lift.....	133
4.2. Ethnic barriers to success.....	138
4.2.1. The community, the neighbourhood, the ghetto: limited chance for influence coming from the successful ones.....	138
4.2.2. Discrimination: the ethnic includes the racial.....	148
4.2.3. Success under conditions of discrimination: double effort and „ethno-extras“.....	164
4.2.4. Policies on ethnic minorities at state level and NGO level.....	173
4.3. The formula of success.....	187
4.3.1. Summing up: the cost?.....	187
4.3.2. The reverse image: the unsuccessful.....	208
4.3.3. Better quality of life, higher cultural status.....	214
5. Profile 2:
success for Roma intellectuals	229
5.1. Roma intellectuals.....	229
5.1.1. Who are the Roma intellectuals?.....	229
5.1.2. Aspects of research. Conceptualization.....	234
5.2. Roma students.....	236
5.2.1. Socialization: the family, the teachers.....	236
5.2.2. Aspects of everyday life. Dimensions of the political.....	239
5.2.3. Nature and dimensions of success.....	245
5.3. Roma teachers.....	248
5.3.1. Social formation.....	248
5.3.2. Standard of living.....	251
5.3.3. Social and cultural capital.....	254
5.3.4. Success and satisfaction.....	258
6. Profile 3:
success for Roma politicians and administrators	263
6.1. Origin of the category of Roma in politics and administration.....	263
6.2. Ethnicity as a problem.....	270
6.3. The education of the children.....	275
6.4. “I” and the others.....	277
6.5. Discrimination.....	280
6.6. Successful and unsuccessful.....	286