

– Ya-la!

Akana leske bazhanakya ka zhan te roden kapkes e yakhenge. Zhala

– Zha phen te dadeske, te zhav li meya te rodav kapkes, chha!

Zhala:

– Dade! Mangava te razreshies te zhal li mo rom te rodel li ov kapkes te yakhenge!

– Ey, mi chhay! Neka zhal! Ama den les ekhe heres, ta te zhal lesa!

I ov zhala, uklel o heres tersene. Chhivela o heres andre ekhe chikate. Tay machinela te inkalel les. Leske bazhanakya nakhna.

– Ey, badzho! Elan te inkalas o heres, te zhas kupate, be!

– Ayde, be! Ame na mangasa te gelas tu amentsa, te maras amarc shoro tusa.

Inkalela o bal. Tharla la. Ukela ko grast, zhala ko apteka.

– A be, imash li ubavi kapki, be? Kapkes e yakhenge isi li tut?

– Isi! Isi! Isi man!

Dela len vov.

– Kibor love mangesa e kapkenge?

– Love na kamam!

– Mi so mangesa?

– Mangava te thoav tumenge andi bul po ekh pechati.

Lela o pechati – andi bul. Pishinela „Kelesh“. Kalkeske, koleske, sari- nenge ko bule. I unkela ko grast thay pash o her gelo. Kate ulo o her ko chik. Uhela iz ko grast, ukela o heres. Lilyas li peske kapkes. On avena.

– Ey, ame gelyam! Li kapkes lilyam, li vsichko. Tu azhay nashti inklyosa!

– Zharen ma te inkalav o heres ando chik!

Gele othe pash o thagar, mukle o kapkes. Makhena les.

– O-o-o! Dukhala man kikale kapkendar!

O Keleshis phenla pe romnyake:

– Phen te dadeske te makhel mere kapkendar!

Lilyas oy ingaldyas e kapkes pe dadeske.

– Lokerdyas tut, dade, kikale kapkes?

– O, mi chhay! Nanay! Tere hatereske ka lav li tere!

Lel, makhel les iz ko Keleshiskere.

– O, mi chhay! Li akaya te makhes!

– O Keleshi na dela po-but! Samo ekh yakh phenlyas te makhav!

Avdies-tasya, makhela les. Kikaya kapkes si po-khanele. Ko treto drom alo o Keleshis. Vov phiravdyas pe ykha.

I akana voyna ka keren. O Keleshis pala ukela o heres pala te zhal.
